

A report on the Inauguration Ceremony of the Utopian English Club

On 1 Aug 2024, the Department of English inaugurated the English Week in the presence of the esteemed Chief Guests - the Life members of V.V. Sangha Sri Hemant Reddy and Sri Vasanth Kumar, President Dr.M. Prabhugouda, Head of the Department, Dr. Sushma Hugar and Secretary of Utopian Club Dr. Shiva Mallikarjuna.

The ceremony commenced with a warm welcome address by our student with an introductory talk by the HOD Dr Sushma Hugar, followed by a prayer song and watering the plant, symbolizing the ignition of knowledge and growth. The inauguration ceremony emphasized the significance of the student's participation in the co curricular activities based on their core subject and provided a platform to express their passion for literature through various literary activities. The faculty members and students attended the program with great enthusiasm and made it a grand success.

ENGLISH WEEK - DAY 1 [2023-24]

LITERARY ACTIVITIES CONDUCTED

1.LITERARY QUIZ [ROUND ONE]

2.DEBATE

LITERARY QUIZ [ROUND ONE]

GALLERY

The Secretary of Utopian English Club Dr. Shiva Mallikarjuna along with colleague Anand organized a Quiz Competition wherein the students demonstrated their literary knowledge by enthusiastically taking part in the event. The participants were evaluated with the curriculum and English literature based multiple choice questions. The top scorers in the round will be qualified for the next round to be held on the third day of English Week.

DEBATE

Gallery

The Debate Competition was organized by faculty of the Department, Kanmani K V wherein the participants were divided into 2 groups and each group was given the Debate topics. Group 1 was given the topic “Indian Culture versus Western Culture” and Group 2 was given the topic “Technology as a Saviour or as a Destroyer”.

The Event was graced by the presence of Judges from various Departments who were warmly welcomed by the students. The judges were Dr. Gadeppa, HOD of Kannada Department, Dr. Shrunghesh from Chemistry Department, Mrs. Jayshree and Mr. Abhinandan Joshi from the Political Science Department.

The participants actively took part in the event followed by the judges feedback and their performance with regards to their topic and its relevance to contemporary affairs. Students Deepashri and Jادیyappa hosted the event smoothly. All the volunteers, participants, lecturers and students actively engaged themselves in making this event the most meaningful and memorable one.

