

ENGLISH WEEK - DAY 3 [2023-24]

LITERARY ACTIVITIES CONDUCTED

1. Poetry Recitation
2. Essay Writing
3. Quiz ( Main )

1. POETRY RECITATION --

GALLERY

On the third day of English Week i.e., on 03.08.2024 Poetry recitation was conducted for the students under the guidance of Maruthi Prasad H.M. and Chelsi Chopra, Faculties of the English Department. The event was organized in the Conference Hall in the presence of Judges from other Departments. The Judges were Bharthi Madam from the Kannada Department and Nethra Madam from Hindi Department who graded the students on the basis of language grip, clarity and overall performance. The judges even encouraged and motivated the students to become better at poetry reading and recitation by grasping the rhythmic pattern of a poem. Students Shreekala and Praveen Kumar hosted the event smoothly.

2. ESSAY WRITING – GALLERY

On 3 August 2024, which constitutes the Third Day of English Week, an Essay Competition was organized under the supervision of Kanmani K V, Faculty of English Department with student volunteers Praveen D S and Nethra. The participants were given a topic like Traits making an Influential Person, Career Aspirations and Goal, favorite writer or poet and the society of tomorrow. The competition held for an hour wherein participants were closely monitored with their writing specificities.

3. QUIZ (MAIN) –

GALLERY

On the same day ( THIRD DAY ) of English Week 03.08.2024, the final round of Quiz was conducted under the leadership of Dr. Shiva Mallikarjun and other co-lecturers like Kanmani K V, Maruthi Prasad H.M., Anand. The participants who got the highest marks in round one of the Quiz that was held on the first day, were made into four teams subsequently. Each team had five participants named on famous literary figures of English. The teams were Arundhati Roy, Charles Dickens, Jane Austen and William Shakespeare. The participants were tested on various grounds like syllabus knowledge, classic writers, their speed with quick thinking and reflex abilities. The session continued into three rounds with elimination at each level and in the final round, two teams qualified themselves as Winners and Runners up.

